Moth - ers and sweet - hearts and dads, _____
Won't ev - ry - bo - dy feel proud, _____

Wait - ing for news - from your lads, _____ You have no rea - son to feel blue _____ For soon they'll Can you i - ma - gine 'the crowd? _____ Twill be the great - est ev - er known, _____ To wel - come be back home with you, _____ Fight - ing is go - ing to cease, _____ all the boys back home, _____ We've nev - er lost in a row, _____

We'll soon have vic - try and peace, _____ And when the good ship starts to You bet that we won't lose now, _____ We've got a real hard job, But sail o'er the sea, — Oh what a time — there will be — when it is done, — For — ev — er we'll lay — down the gun. —

CHORUS

When the old boat heads for home — Ploughing her way — thru the foam, —

Ev'ry one hap — py and gay, — Hats in the air, — yell — ing "Hip, Hip, Hooray!" —

We'll bring the old — ba — con home, — Nev — er a — gain — will we roam, — It's bound to come, —

Say, won't that be some — day! When the old boat heads for home. — home. —
